QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS.

The following is the qualification of voters entitled to vote upon the debenture by-law, which will be submitted to the people of Edmonton on Monday next:

Section 179. Every ratepayer being a man, unmarried woman or widow, shall be entitled to vote on any by-law requiring the assent of the electors, who, at the time of tendering the vote, is of the full age of twenty-one years, and a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, and who has neither directly or indirectly received nor is in expectation of receiving any reward or gift for the vote which he tenders, and who is at the time of the tender a freeholder in his own right or whose wife is a freeholder of real property within such municipality, and is rated on the last revised assessment roll as such freeholder for not less than four hundred dollars, provided that such person is named or purported to be named in the voters' list of electors.

(2). Every ratepayer shall be entitled to vote on any by-law requiring the assent of the electors, who is a man, unmarried woman or widow and at the time of tender of the vote is of the full age of twenty-one years, and a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, and who has not directly or indirectly received nor is in expectation of receiving any reward or gift for the vote which he tenders, and is resident within the municipality for which the vote is taken for one month next before the vote, and who is or whose wife is a leaseholder of real property within the Municipality, and who is rated on the last revised assessment roll therefor for not less than four hundred dollars, and which lease extends for the period of time within which the debt to be contracted or the money to be raised by the by-law is made payable; in which lease the lessee has covenanted to pay all municipal taxes in respect of the property leased, and which person is named or purported to be named in the voters' list.

The death of Joel Reaman, M.L.A. for Wallace, is the first that has occurred amongst the members of the Northwest assembly. Mr. Reaman was born in the township of Vaughan, county of York, Ont., and was clerk of that township for a number of years before removing to the Northwest. He was one of the organizers of the Yorkton colony and probably did more than any other man to secure the settlement of the country around Yorkton. After removing to the Northwest, Mr. Reaman established a farm, mill and store in Yorkton, and generally was a most enterprising citizen. The electoral district of Wallace, which he represented in the assembly, was named after his political leader in the county of York. Mr. Reaman was elected to the assembly in 1888 and was again returned in 1891. He became a member of the Cayley executive at last session. He was a faithful and painstaking member, always on the alert to serve the interests of his constituents, and desirous of advancing the welfare of the Territories, according to his understanding. He was a brother-in-law of John Abel, manufacturer of agricultural machinery, at one time of Woodbridge and now of Toronto.

Singer Manufacturing Co. vs. Whitson—Same as previous case.

McDonald vs. Town of Edmonton—Action to recover costs of expenses for the damage occasioned by of a by-law to expropriate property and the subsequent repeal of the by-law. In the course of the trial the judge ruled that he could not take into consideration the real value of the property proposed to be expropriated for the purpose of estimating the proper amount to be allowed to the plaintiff's advocates for costs in the arbitration proceedings. Judgment was reserved. S. S. & H. C. Taylor for plaintiff; Beck & McNamara for defendants.

Hiller vs. Humberstone—This was an appeal from an order made by Mr. Piercy, J.P., for the payment of wages by Wm. Humberstone to Gustave Hiller. Humberstone appealed. The Judge held that the magistrate had no jurisdiction to try the case on the ground that no magistrate has jurisdiction to try a case for wages, and that it is beyond the power of the legislative assembly of the Northwest Territories to confer such jurisdiction upon magistrates. The appeal was therefore allowed. S. S. & H. C. Taylor for appellant; Beck & McNamara for respondent.

Tims vs. Bergeron—The defence was merely regarding a claim for interest, the debt was not disputed. S. S. & H. C. Taylor for plaintiff; Bown & Prince for defendant.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, OCTOBER 13th 1892

A BRIDGE.

The arrival of government engineers to survey for a bridge across the Saskatchewan at Edmonton is in fulfilment of a long standing promise, repeated last spring to Messrs. McDougall and Beck, sent as delegates from the town to interview the Ottawa authorities on the subject. No doubt the rapid progress of settlement in this part of the Territories and consequent increase of traffic over the Edmonton branch of the C. & E. railway has had a great deal to do with bringing the government to the point of at least surveying for a bridge; and not less the fact which was developed very clearly during the past summer that there are a good many people in Edmonton who are very much in earnest in support of the right of this place to be and remain the centre of trade and authority for this district. While the action taken by the government is most encouraging, it will not be well for us to sit down and rest easy that a preliminary survey means the erection of a bridge. The laws, delays are notorious, but they are not in sight of government delays. While the survey is a step towards the bridge, let us not forget it is only a step; the easiest one to take and also the easiest one to retrace, of all the many that lie between commencement and completion. It is the interest of this district and this town that the bridge should be commenced during the coming winter and completed during the coming summer. To this end all people interested in the progress of this section of the Northwest should bend their energies, and not rest until it is attained. When the wind is in our favor, as at present, is the time to make sail and go ahead. It may change or fail at any moment, and what is easy now might then be impossible. "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day." If the bridge is now within our reach, now is the time to get it.

Whereas it is expedient that there should be raised by the Municipality of the town of Edmonton the sum of $10,000.00 to enable the Municipality to repay certain amounts temporarily borrowed for the purchase of certain lands and fire apparatus required for the use of the Municipality and for other like purposes of permanent benefit to the Municipality, and also to enable the Municipality to borrow further sums which it is expedient to expend for the purpose of erecting a fire hall and for other like purposes of permanent benefit to the Municipality.

And whereas it is expedient to borrow the said sum of $10,000.00 by the issue of debentures, the principal whereof shall be repayable within ten years from the date upon which this by-law shall take effect, and which shall bear interest in the meantime payable half yearly at the rate of six per cent per annum.

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the repayment of the said principal sum by the creation of an equal yearly sinking fund.

1. This by-law is to take effect on the 1st day of December, 1892.

2. TUESDAY, October 41.

Queen vs. Okamow—Assault occasioning bodily harm to D. L. Clink, Indian agent, Peace Hills. The verdict was guilty; the sentence 4 months with hard labor. N. D. Beck for the crown; J. C. F. Bown for the defendant.

Queen vs. Robinson—False pretenses in passing an unsigned American bank note. The judge found the defendant guilty and was proceeding to sentence him when the crown prosecutor, saying to the judge that he thought it his duty to do so, pointed out that his lordship in giving his reasons for finding the defendant guilty had mistaken the order in which two facts proved in evidence had occurred. This turning out to be so the judge said that on the evidence as it now appeared he had so much doubt that he would find the defendant not guilty. This was the verdict accordingly. N. D. Beck for the crown; J. C. F. Bown for the defendant.

Kelly vs. Bellerose—Suit for $15 lent. Defence said that the money was paid for an illegal purpose during the Prince-Maloney election. Judgment for plaintiff without costs. P. L. McNamara for plaintiff; S. S. Taylor for defendant.

WEDNESDAY, October 12.

Town of Edmonton vs. Brown & Curry—Action by the municipality to compel the defendants to remove their store back north of the south boundary of lot P, river lot 10. Defendants claim to be entitled to compensation and that the arbitration clauses of the municipal ordinance apply to the case. Judgment reserved. N. D. Beck for plaintiffs; S. S. Taylor for defendants.

Federal Life vs. Boulais—Action on a note. No defence was offered. Judgment for plaintiffs: J. C. F. Bown for defendant.

Paguace vs. Gory—A case similar to the last. The same advocates appeared.

GENERAL NEWS.

The interior department has been advised that 22 Michigan farmers start this week for Southern Manitoba and the Edmonton district.

Moose Jaw Times: "William Shields, of Battle Creek, Michigan, and John Shields, of Edmonton, have been visiting friends in town recently."

The Regina Standard announces that "Mr. Sutherland has not resigned, and furthermore he is not going to resign. In a few weeks he will meet his traducers in the legislative assembly where they will be compelled to swallow their own medicine."

Moose Jaw Times: Winnipeg is known as "The Prairie City;" Portage la Prairie as "The City of the Plains;" Brandon as "The Wheat City;" Regina as "The Queen City;" Moose Jaw as "The Jaw;" Medicine Hat as "The Hat;" and Calgary as "The City of Cheerful Liars."

A Regina despatch to the Manitoba Free Press says: "Mr. Davin, M. P., has retired from any active part in the management of the Leader of this place, and it is understood that J. J. Young, who has been connected with the paper for some seven years past, assumes the position of manager and editor."

Herald, Calgary: One of the most magnificent collections of grains, grasses, etc., ever sent from Alberta, went forward this morning, destined for England. This great collection, which completely filled the car, was made by Messrs. Fitzgerald & Lucas, the samples all having been gathered in the Edmonton and other districts of northern Alberta. The C. P. R. will receive these grains in England, and when shown they will doubtless create something of a sensation among the agriculturists of the old country."

Free Press' Ottawa despatch: Swanson, Swedish immigration agent, visited the interior department to-day in company with several Swedish delegates from the New England States who have just returned from the Northwest. Several of them took up land in the district between Red Deer Valley and Edmonton, and would have taken up more had the section been surveyed. They will, however, return in the spring with a large number of their friends now settled in the Eastern States, and take up homesteads in the Northwest.

THE Free Press notes boastfully that tender flowers are still blooming in the gardens in Winnipeg untouched by frost. The BULLETIN garden has sweet peas, dianthus, candy tuft, pansys, daisys and asters in full bloom.

A SON of John Whitford, of Battle river, who resides a few miles east of Battle river Indian agency, was shot dead about three weeks ago by his brother, who was playing with a gun. The boy who was killed was struck in the head by the shot and instantly killed, besides being considerably disfigured. He was about nine years of age. The boy in whose hands the gun was, was about twelve years of age.

REV. MR. MORIN arrived from Montreal on Monday's train with the following party of settlers for Morinville, north of St. Albert: D. D. Tellier, Ste. Melanie; Alf. Letourneau and wife, Argyle, Minnesota; Albert Defonven, Belgium; D. Benoit, V. Gosselin, Mrs. E. Morin, Montreal; Joseph Bleau, Ottawa; Octave Germain, Deschambault; Charles Chartier, St. Remi. There were 31 persons altogether.

FREE PRESS: "H. H. Smith, agent for the Dominion immigration matters in Nebraska for some time past, was presented yesterday with the following address by the visiting Nebraska delegates before their departure for the south: H. H. Smith, Esq., Immigration agent for Nebraska. Dear Sir,—We, the undersigned delegates from Nebraska, having come up under your charge, desire to say a few words, now that we are returning, in regard to our trip to Edmonton. By close examination, we find that it is all that a farmer could wish for. Plenty of wood, coal, first-class land and plenty of good water. As for a stock country it can't be beat. In fact, for a mixed farming country, northern Alberta has no equal. The specimens of wheat, barley and oats and all kinds of cereals we have seen are beyond our expectations. To persons living so far south as we do, it is hard to believe that the chief nourishments of life seem to grow to perfection so far north as we have been."

THE SHOW.

The Edmonton fall show, which opened to-day, is by all odds the most successful that has ever been seen in Edmonton. At an early hour this morning wagon loads of exhibits began to roll in from all directions and before long the hall, the lower story of Robertson's building, was packed with an array of grains, grasses, vegetables, dairy products and ladies' work that would have taken no second place at the greatest exhibitions in the eastern provinces. The show of horses, cattle stock generally, was quite up to that seen in the hall. The weather, which has been fine for so long, has turned cloudy and cool to-day, and may interfere with to-morrow's success in the line of visitors, but it is to be hoped that our usual exhibition luck will not desert us. The show of horses occurred to-day at 1 p.m. The hall was open from 3 p.m., and will remain open until 10 p.m. To-morrow the show of cattle, sheep, swine and poultry will take place at 10 a.m. The exhibition hall will be open from 10 a.m., to 4 p.m. The first prize horses will parade at 1 p.m.

ST. ALBERT EXHIBITION.

The annual exhibition of the St. Albert agricultural society was held at that place on Tuesday. There was a good exhibition and a large attendance. The show of horses was particularly good. There was a fair show of cattle also. Excellent samples of wheat were shown, such as would be a credit to any country. The vegetables were very good, although not up to some former years in size. An exhibit of factory cheese was a new feature at an exhibition in this district. About $600 was awarded in prizes.

Qu'Appelle Vidette: We are informed that Mr. Cayley has increased the fees to the license inspectors when the houses inspected secure license. Is this Mr. Cayley's method of better enforcing the license law, and paying the inspectors for the work done? If it be so, we think it poor improvement. If it is worth $25 to inspect a house that secures a license, it is worth just as much to inspect a house that is denied a license; for the duty must be much less pleasant. The inspector should be paid a proper fee for inspecting any house and making an honest report thereon, whether it is successful in getting a license or not. Besides, this method of payment is very apt to upset an ordinary mortal's judgment. He may not be so particular about visiting the out-houses, and other parts of premises which it is of the utmost importance should be properly looked after, if he is to get $20 more for making any favorable report than for stating the plain facts regarding the state of the premises. Mr. Cayley's ambition seems to be rather to increase drinking shops than to secure to the public good, clean, well-kept hotels.
